2. Recently the CFI has concluded a thorough review of the NFIP and has decided the dollar levels against which program managers are now constructing their Fiscal Year 1978 budgets. The review, which included approvals, disapprovals, and deferrals for more study, has given the CFI excellent visibility into the activities of the entire National Foreign Intelligence Program. Late in the year the CFI will review these programs once more to arrive at a final dollar level for submission to OMB.
